What's not to love? Inviting new construction...from the moment you step in you will notice the wall of windows across the back living area and the view of the stocked fishing lake. As well, the open concept floor plan provides a HUGE island for seating and a formal dining area. Split bedrooms and a nice size utility room and mud bench. The kitchen has beautiful backsplash, stainless appliances and a view that cannot be beat. A nice covered porch across the back and fully irrigated front and back. Come enjoy the community fishing lake, fresh produce from our community garden, delicious Nolan Farms honey right from our hives....so many reasons to call this HOME.
